

FESTIVAL PROGRAM 23 SEPT 2021

HUMAN RIGHTS

Ethical finance, Economic Inclusion, Diversity in Community Activism

TEATRO RUZZANTE
Riviera Tito Livio, 45

PADOVA

H 9:00

CHECK IN

H 9:30

WELCOME TO THE YOUTH ACTION FESTIVAL

Opening statements from the festival organizers, plus Amici dei Popoli Padova

H 10:00

SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE - Professor Alberto Lanzavecchia

Director of the Master in Savings Management and Coordinator of the University International Summer School "Microfinance in Action" in Nepal organized by the University Center for Human Rights

H 10:30

AUDIENCE Q&A

H 11:00

PANEL DISCUSSION

With representatives from Amici dei Popoli Padova, Amnesty International Padova and The Student Engagement Team discussing the obstacles faced by youth activists and the benefits of diverse representation

H 12:30

LUNCH BREAK

Click here to register for the alternative event on investigative journalism

H 14:00

SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE - Professor Ilaria Di Maggio

Research Fellow at the Department of Philosophy, Sociology, Pedagogy and Applied Psychology and collaborator with the University Centre for Disability and Inclusion at the University of Padua

H 14:30

AUDIENCE Q&A

H 15:30

CONTAMINATION LAB

This is an interdisciplinary innovation group experience involving a business simulation facilitated by AIESEC in Padova and The SET. Participants will work together to formulate solutions to problems related to any of the 17 sustainable development goals addressed during the festival

H 16:30

END OF DAY 1

NOTE: The green pass will be required for admission into the venue, as per University of Padua guidelines. Download your green pass here.

ORGANIZERS

Initiative financed with the contribution of the University of Padova

PARTNERS

FESTIVAL PROGRAM 24 SEPT 2021

ENVIRONMENT AND ENGINEERING
Circular Economy, Environmental Sustainability, Gender Equality in STEM

TEATRO RUZZANTE
Riviera Tito Livio, 45
PADOVA

H 9:00

CHECK IN

H 9:30

WELCOME TO THE YOUTH ACTION FESTIVAL

Opening statements from the festival organizers, plus United4Nepal

H 10:00

SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE - Professor Maria Cristina Lavagnolo

Associate Professor of Environmental Engineering at the University of Padova, with expertise in circular and sustainable waste management including in developing countries

H 10:30

AUDIENCE Q&A

H 11:00

PANEL DISCUSSION

With representatives from Enactus UniUd, L'Osteria Volante and Sustainability Padova discussing proactivity, collaboration and opportunities to develop skills for solving global issues

H 12:30

LUNCH BREAK

Click here to register for the alternative event from the Arqus Spring School on climate change education

H 14:00

CONTAMINATION LAB

This is an interdisciplinary innovation group experience involving a business simulation facilitated by AIESEC in Padova and The SET. Participants will work together to formulate solutions to problems related to any of the 17 sustainable development goals addressed during the festival

H 15:30

YOUTH PARTICIPANT PRESENTATIONS

Each group has 10 minutes to present the ideas developed during the contamination lab

H 16:30

END OF DAY 2

NOTE: The green pass will be required for admission into the venue, as per University of Padua guidelines. Download your green pass here.

ORGANIZERS

Initiative financed with the contribution of the University of Padova

PARTNERS